Dear Joe,

As I enter my 40th year in the restaurant business, I still tell the new kids, "It's a people business." You know that as well as anyone – the guests, the staff, the management, the vendors and on and on.

Even on your end of the business, it's about people, and no one does it better than you, Joe, with help from Vicki.

In all the restaurants we've opened, all the renovations we've completed, all the plans that were drawn (and re-drawn), all the applications and permits applied for and received, you have been front and center with us, and many times leading us, so that we could get on with our business, taking care of our people and becoming as profitable as possible.

I would never consider doing any of those, large or small, without Restaurant Consultants by my side. The times I've called just to bounce an idea off of you or to seek your advice are too numerous to mention. Especially for an independent restaurant company, having people like you on the team is extremely important, even critical.

I'm proud of my company, proud of what we've accomplished and established and proud to be associated with you personally, and professionally with Restaurant Consultants, Inc.

If there is anything I can ever do for you, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Kirby
